Regal in their magnificense, forerunners of a holiday season that is here, Charleroi merchants in their window displays last night presented to the public gaze something for the people of the borough and the community to comment upon for days and even months to come. The time for the opening of the windows was set for 7 o'clock, and by this hour the business section of the borough was thronged with eager spectators, not so much to see who, in their opinion, had the finest dressed window, as to ascertain just what the merchants had to display of their goods to meet public approbation. As announced in previous issues of the Mail, and on Monday evening, this Window Trimming contest was inaugurated as a formal opening of the Christmas shopping season, the sum of $55 in prizes being awarded to the winners. The local merchants taking part were:

Harrisburg, Dec. 4—Preventing tuberculosis pays big dividens according to Governor Pinchot, who said today:

Investigation has shown that it costs about six times as much to cure tuberculosis as to prevent the disease.

"This fact is well borne out by our experience in Pennsylvania. Since 1907 the death rate from tuberculosis in this State has been reduced from tuberculosis in the 149 per 100,000 to 85 per 100,000. In 1923 alone 5743 lives were saved who would have been victims if the 907 rate had prevailed. This means millions of dollars gained through lives saved, but it can hardly be compared to the gain in homes kept together, thousands enabled to work and the blessings and happiness of health for many other thousands. This wonderful showing has been accompanied by a great increase in the preventive and educational effort in combating the White Plague. The teaching of good health habits has been especially emphasized among

Coupling Giving Way In Mine Cars Proves Fatal To Thomas Boyle Of Ellsworth, When They Crash Into Trip Carrying Workmen

Thomas Boyle, assistant mine foreman, was instantly killed and three others were seriously injured yesterday afternoon when a coupling in a trip of loaded mine cars broke in the south main shaft of Ellsworth mine, allowing the runaway cars to back down a dip in the mine and crash into a trip of cars carrying about 150 men who were on their way to the shaft after completing their day's work.

The trip of loaded cars was ahead of that hauling the men and when it reached the heavy grade on the way to the shaft, the coupling let go and the cars gradually drifted down the slope until they crashed into the one hauling the men. Boyle was riding on the motor of the trip, and when the crash came he was thrown off and over his body, killing him instantly. The three other men were badly cut and bruised. They were taken to the hospital of the Ellsworth Coal company, where they were given treatment and were taken to their homes. It is not thought that any of them will die.

The deceased, an esteemed member of Charleroi Order of Knights of Columbus, No. 956, for the past 12 years, was very wellknown in Charleroi. He was a native of Scotland, but has lived in this vicinity practically all his life. He was a member of the L. O. O. M. of Irwin, P. O., and St. Clement's church of Ellsworth.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Nellie Sullivan Boyle, two children, Joseph Boyle and Mercedes Boyle; his father, John Boyle of Hermame; and two brothers, Michael and Frank, and four sisters, Mary, Juha, Rose and Sarah.

Funeral services will take place Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock in St. Clement's church with Rev. Father John Skiak in charge. Interment will follow in the Calvary cemetery of Charleroi.

The body is now in the hands of Deputy Coroner M. T. Crowley being prepared for burial.

Monessen Fire Forces Occupants To Flee Scantily Clad; Loss $10,000

The city of Monessen was the scene of a $10,000 fire early this morning which for a time threatened an entire block of business buildings at Eleventh street and Schoonmaker avenue when flames spread rapidly from the kitchen of the Manhattan restaurant, where they orginated to the apartments above forcing 50 occupants to flee for safety scantily clad.

The fire started this morning at 3 o'clock, when the soap an employe of the restaurant was making, boiled over and became ignited. The kitchen was soon a mass of flames, which spread rapidly to the apartments above.

The firemen, who responded immediately, fought desperately with three streams of water on the building and saved the three-story brick structure from destruction, however, $10,000 damage was done to the interior of the building. The interior of the restaurant was totally destroyed, as was the one apartment above, by fire and water.

DARKEY'S DEATH FOUND ACCIDENT

Coroner William Greenlee conducted an inquest into the death of Howard W. Smith, colored, who was killed last week by an inbound interurban street car at Riverview.

The jury, after hearing the evidence, exonerated the car crew, and William Whitfield, driver of the automobile from which Smith jumped and fell under the wheels of the street car.

FLYER BELATED REACHING HERE BY COLLISION

The Fairmont Flyer reaching Charleroi at 7.01 last night, was fifteen minutes late, an unusual event.

It was learned today, that at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, upon arriving at the Fredericktown crossing, the train and a large truck collided, completely demolishing the truck and badly injuring the driver, whose name could not be ascertained. He was taken to a first aid hospital at Vestaburg and given treatment.

A peculiar and unusual feature of the accident was that when the truck was demolished the gasoline tank was bursted open and became ignited. The truck became a mass of flames which spread to the train, endangering the lives of hundreds of passengers. Firemen extinguished the flames and the train proceeded on its way, making up lost time to the extent that it was only 15 minutes late upon arriving at Charleroi.

Asks Nations' Sympathy For Our Well-Being

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Without referring by name to the League of Nations, the world court, or any other form of international machinery, President Coolidge today made a straight-away appeal for sympathetic cooperation with other nations as the one firm foundation for this country's well being.

Speaking at a luncheon of the Chicago Commercial Club the president asserted that just as the common prosperity of agriculture and industry in this country depended on their mutual good relations so did the continued prosperity of the United States depend upon cooperation with other nations.

"We cannot expect, in the long course of events, to maintain our country on a permanent level of general well-being far above that of other people," said Mr. Coolidge.

"I am profoundly impressed with the fact that the structure of modern society is essentially a unity, destined to stand or fall as such.

"At the last those of us who are partners in the supreme service of building and bettering our civilization must go up or down, must succeed or fail together, in our one common enterprise.

"We can no more assure permanent and stable peace without cooperation among nations, than we could assure victory in war without allies among them."

President Coolidge was careful to avoid committing his advocacy of international cooperation to any specific international legal machinery, either existent or contemplated.

"I would not have you mistake my meaning," he pointed out. "I should never advocate the sacrifice of any part of our prosperity because of the

JURY GIVES THE TALNAKS $2,600

Smith Township Loses In the Action Brought For Injuries to a School Boy By the Explosion of a Dynamite Cap

BIG NOTE IS INVOLVED

Case of the First National Bank of Donora Against James M. Purcell — Defendant Makes a Statement—The Case Creates Considerable Interest

A verdict of $1,377.50 in favor of George Talnak, Jr., the 11-year-old boy whose left hand was maimed by the explosion of a dynamite cap which he found where it had been left by the foreman of a gang working for Smith township, was brought in by the jury at Washington yesterday, and $1,224.30 in favor of the father of the boy, making a total of $2,601.80. Smith township was the defendant. The case was called last week before Judge Erwin Cummins and given to the jury Tuesday afternoon. A sealed verdict was brought in.

This boy had found a package of dynamite caps on a slate dump one mile west of Burgettstown, from which a gang of men had been hauling slate. It was shown that the package had been placed there by the foreman of the gang, until it should be needed. Not knowing what the caps were, the boys took them, and one exploded in the hands of George Talnak, Jr. His left hand was so badly injured that he lost the use of it.

A judgment note for $15,000 is involved in the case of the First National Bank of Donora, against James M. Purcell, which was called before Judge Erwin Cummins yesterday. This note is dated May 29, 1920, and made by James P. Castner in favor of James P. Castner and A. J. O'Donnell. On June 1, 1920, the latter endorsed the note to the First National bank.

The defendant averred that on April 29, 1920, he, together with James P. Castner, A. J. O'Donnell and others, organized the Woodward Motors Corporation. In May an agreement was made with the Ridgely Motor company to purchase certain real estate from it, and the note in question was given to raise the purchase price. In July, 1920, it is alleged that the Woodward Motor corporation offered to give its note in exchange for that signed by James M. Purcell, but the bank refused to accept it. The defendant claimed that payment of the note was not asked until March 5, 1924, 45 months after it was delivered to the bank, and therefore he is not liable. The case is up to the jury.

Firemen Unable To Have The Big Xmas Tree

Charleroi firemen, at their regular monthly meeting held Tuesday night, definitely decided that they will not put on their Christmas tree, known as the Community Christmas Tree, this year. The reasons ascribed by them, are as follows:

During the week of July 4 they gave a bazaar; on Halloween night they gave another bazaar, and on Thanksgiving day they held a football game at the baseball park. The ostensible purpose of all these was to raise sufficient funds to put on the tree as in former years, but not enough coin of the realm was realized to make the tree possible. It has cost $2200 to put on the tree each year, and the bazaars and the football game receipts failed to reach the amount named, or necessary. Therefore, the firemen haven't the funds to go ahead with the tree, much as they regret they cannot do so.

Students To Charter Two Railway Cars For Saturday's Game

Charleroi High School students will charter two Pittsburgh Railways cars to carry them to Tech Bowl on Saturday to witness the Charleroi-New Castle game. Many others are planning to go by train or motor car.

By making a guarantee of 65 people a special car may be chartered at $1.25 for the round trip. Mr. Yost has advised. If the roads continue in their present bad condition, probably many townspeople will charter cars from the street car company at this rate.

Once again the spirited townspeople have gotten together and raised funds for the hire of a band. It was reported yesterday by Walter Urben that the Carnegie Tech band had been engaged for the occasion. This will assuredly add to the enjoyment of the Charleroi rooters, as the Tech band has gained a wonderful reputation and ranks high among the leading college bands.

The umpire for Saturday's game has not been agreed upon; however, Charleroi fans can rest assured that the man selected for the position will be thoroughly competent.

There is no way of determining how many Charleroi people are planning to attend Saturday's contest, but it is expected that every loyal fan will be on hand to see the only team from the Monongahela valley that has ever competed for a Syracuse trophy. This is a distinct honor, as there have been many good football teams in this section in the past 15 years, and the cup has been awarded conservatively during that time.

Tickets to the football game over the Pittsburgh Railways company, Saturday, will be honored on special cars, only.

Nemacolin Club Holds Its Annunl Meeting At The Club House

At their club house near Beallsville, the members of the Nemacolin Country club held their annual meeting last night. At the session a board of directors was elected, in addition to the hearing of reports, which showed that the club is in a prosperous condition. James Devlin was retained as professional for another year.

The building committee reported that the club house [illegible] completed at a cost of $2,000 less than the estimates. The committee also expressed satisfaction with the workmanship and material furnished by the contracting firm, the Charleroi Lumber Company.

The finance committee, in its report, stated that receipts for the year were slightly in excess of $40,000. The expenditures were about $39,000. This report did not include any funds used in the erection of the new club house.

The men members of the club extended a rousing vote of thanks to the women players for their fine achievements during the past season, during which they lost but one match, that being the concluding one at Uniontown.

Ex-Governor John K. Tener expressed the thanks of the membership for the fine conduct of affairs last year. Members on the board of governors elected follow: Kerfoot W. Daly and R. H. Rush, Charleroi; Harry R. Brenizer, Bentleyville; H. F. Clark, Belle Vernon; James S. Craft, George J. Edel and J. R. Herbertson, Brownsville; Lee M. Crowthers, Fredericktown; Jess P. Miller, Beallsville; T. B. Semans, Uniontown; J. Olan Yarnall, California; L. McK. Crumrine, C. E. Frazier, B. F. Mevay, Jr., and Dr. J. W. McKennan, Washington.

VALLEY STRIP IN A TITLE CONTEST WITH BROWNSVILLE

The championship clash between the Brownsville Independents and the Valley Strip eleven on Sunday at Brownsville promises to be the biggest game of the season in independent circles, for the winner of this game will have a clear claim to the sandlot chamuionship of western Pennsylvania and there will be few fans who will dispute any such claim.

Between these two teams they have met and defeated the majority of the contenders for the title and with both sporting great records there is sure to be some real football displayed. Last year Valley Strip, through the sure agency of Joe Weixel, handed Brownsville one of the defeats that [illegible] and this year Billy Lony and his gridders will be out to even the count with the strong club from Lawrenceville.

Valley Strip will engage a special train to carry their followers to the game at Brownsville, and it is thought likely that the Strip band will also accompany the team on its trip up the Monongahela. The final practice session for the Valley Strips will take place this evening and an indoor session is carded, with the players meeting at Fifteenth street and Penn avenue at 8 o'clock The management, taking no chances in not having its men ready, intends putting the team through its paces lightly in this final practice.

TERRY SOUGHT BY THE REDS IN BIG DEAL

Rumor has it that there is a baseball deal cooking between the Giants and the Cincinnati club. Garry Herrmann, the burgomeister of the American Rhineland and Jack Hendricks, manager of the Reds, were in New York yesterday and when they mysteriously disappeared from their hostelry it was said that they had vanished for the purpose of holding a conclave with John McGraw, who was absent all day from his office.

The loss of Jake Daubert leaves the Reds without a first baseman and it is known that Memphis Bill Terry of the Giants is the lad they would like to have to replace the late lamented Jack McGraw will not part with Terry for cash. He wants players and it is hard to see how the Reds could trade any of their regulars and still hope to win a pennant in 92.

This situation will make the business of trading difficult, but not impossible

Mr. Coolidge appealed for more understanding and cooperation between agriculture and industry.

"There has been a great deal of distress endured by the people on the farm," he said. Young Pitcher Goes To Shreveport Club; Roster Within Limit

Sam Dreyfuss and Bill McKechnie, after closing a deal late Tuesday night for a new Pirate infielder, announced that they had just sold one of their young players, thereby keeping their roster of the Pittsburgh club within the legalized limit of 40.

The youth who goes back to the sticks is Pitcher Fred Sale, who was taken from the University of Georgia and sent to the Wilson team of the Virginia League for further experience. During his first professional whirl Sale, who is a right-hander, won 11 games and lost but seven for the North Carolina outfit.

The Shreveport, La., club is making an effort for a pennant dash in the Texas league and it was to this team that Sale was sold outright. The Shreveport people are after young blood which has smiffed the smoke of battle in fast company They also bought Marty Shay, who did some subbing for the Braves this year when Manager Dave Bancroft was in the hospital. Marty was regarded as too small in stature to win a regular berth with the Boston team

Lafayette Fresco Thompson, Jr., the second baseman who was obtained from the Omaha club in the Western League in exchange for Southpaw Arnold Stone and some cash, left last night for his home in New York after visiting Hartford and talking with his new boss, Bill McKechnie. Thompson attributes his unusual name to his grandmother's fondness for reading. She was impressed by the history of General Lafayette and in one of her favorite volumes came across a hero named Fresco. The combination accordingly was attached to her son and he handed it down to the new Pirate player.

Hastings of the Caldwell Department store. Washington, L. F. Batz, Nugent Dry Goods Company, Braddock and Harry Landefeld, Landefeld Store Monongahela, were as follows.

First prize W. B Pfleghardt, furniture, $25; second prize, Jacob Goldstein, gent's furnishings, $15; third prize, J. S. Miller, Fashion Shop, $10, and fourth prize, J. B. Schafer, jeweler, $5.

Honorable mention were given to Wayne's Quality Store, Claybaugh & Milliken's Shoe Store, La Vogue Shoppe, J. W. Berryman & Son, Schmeler & Kimmins, U. S Orange, Zelenski's Ready-to-Wear store, Tweed's Department store.

The judges are all expert window trimmers, and gave their decisions on the merits of the windows as they saw them. The judges had a difficulty task on their hands in making the awards, inasmuch as all the competing merchants had such excellent displays that to judge them with impartiality was a herculean task that taxed the abilities of the judges.

The prizes were awarded at the Elks club, where the merchants and the judges repaired after the windows had been carefully inspected, and where each of the judges made brief remarks, congratultory to the merchants for their individual and collective abilities displayed in the trimmings of the windows. The meting at the Elks club was enchanced by luncheon.

TUBERCULOSIS DAYS

Sunday, November 30, is tuberculosis day in the churches, and Friday, December 5, tuberculosis day in the schools in connection with the seventeenth annual Christmas Seal sale in furtherance of the fight against the White Plague.

Dr John M Thomas, State Seal Chairman, pointed out that church and educational workers are interested in the physical, as well as in the intellectual, moral and spiritual well being of the people and that this is a fine opportunity to further a great public health project.

Governor Pinchot said:

"The close relationship of churches and schools to the everyday life and activities of every citizen, give these agencies a more than ordinary interest in the health of our citizens. It is especially appropriate, therefore, that in fighting our greatest plague that churches and schools especially emphasize on one day the dangers of tuberculosis and how to fight them."

DOUBLE-BARRED CROSS

When the double-barred cross was adopted in 1902 as the emblem of the international fight against tuberculosis, little did its movers realize what the sweep of this great world-wide campaign would be within twenty-two years. In that length of time, tuberculosis has become a war cry of peoples of every language and every tongue from the Atlantic to the Pacific [illegible] to the South Poles, from one end of the world to the other.

This cross, which appears on the Christmas Seal, is a rallying symbol in the fight against tuberculosis.

SEAL AS A LIFE SAVER

A vital factor in preventing tuberculosis is the Christmas Seal. The Seal carries health and good cheer on millions of letters and packages yearly at the Christmas season and provides funds to carry on this preventive work every day throughout the year.

New Navy Official Turns Eye On Navy Yard

To gain first hand knowledge of the physical properties and general conditions in the navy is the first aim of Theodore Douglas Robinson, new assistant secretary of the navy, recently named to succeed Theo. Roosevelt, Jr. One of his first moves was to inspect the Philadelphia navy yard. He is shown above, in civilian clothes, inspecting a sub chaser there. A Red Blood Food For Feeble Old Folks

Doctors say that one of the most frequent causes of feeble, sickly, run-down conditions in old people is thin, pale blood, lacking in strength-building power. In many cases, as people grow older, the iron in the blood is partly used up without being replaced, and even the most nourishing foods will do you little good until you get back this lost iron, without which the blood cannot be rich, red and strengthening. With plenty of iron in the blood a man or woman may be young, vigorous and healthy at 70 or 80—while at 30 or 40 with a deficient supply of iron people may look and feel 10 to 20 years older than they really are.

For it is the iron in your blood that enables it to change food into firm, healthy tissues and promotes vigorous energy and endurance. And when this supply of iron runs low nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good. You simply cannot get strength out of it and you grow weak, feeble and sickly and suffer from various sorts of distressing symptoms and ailments.

In such cases all you need is more iron—organic iron—to give you plenty of the rich red blood and energy that insure you a real, vigorous, healthful old age. But be sure that you take only true organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not the ordinary mineral iron that people have used in the past. Nuxated Iron is a wonderful new combination of organic iron like the iron in your own blood. It does not injure the teeth or disturb the stomach. Try it just two weeks and you'll be amazed how much younger and better you feel and what a marvelous new tide of strength and vitality fills your entire being. Nuxated Iron is sold under an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. At all good druggists.

DANCE HALL YIELDS TIMBER FOR CHURCH

Pulpit Is Made From Top of Old Bar.

Durango, Colo—The old Greek saying "out of bad wood good smoke sometimes comes" was applied here when a community tabernacle and its parsonage were built out of timbers and materials taken from a once notorious gambling resort and dance hall and from an erstwhile brewery.

The tabernacle, built by the Free Methodist church, was recently dedicated. Its altar rail was made of part of the bar against which the lumberjacks, miners, cowpunchers, Mexicans and gamblers of forty years ago used to lean. The bar's foot rail was converted into the hand-rail of the steps leading into the church. A Bible now rests on the polished walnut where the liquor of the early days was placed, for the top of the bar has become the pulpit. The altar was constructed from other parts of the bar.

The church rests on a foundation of stone, heavy timbers and iron beams taken from both the dance hall and the brewery. The window sills and ledges were made from the heavy oak bottoms of huge beer vats.

The building occupies the site of the former brewery. It is situated at the foot of a bluff and is overlooked by the parsonage of the presiding elder of the district. The parsonage once was the office of the brewery and has been made into a modern cottage. It is planned to terrace the bluff and to build winding stairs from the elder's home to the house of worship, using as a hand rail a coil formerly utilized in making beer.

The two steps that lead to the entrance of the tabernacle were formed of timbers taken from the dance hall. One of the boards carries a bullet hole from a "45," evidence of one of the many shooting scrapes that enlivened the old resort. The heavy timbers comprising the supporting columns and the roof beams were taken from the dance halls. The church seats 700.

"I think," said Rev. F F Stewart, the presiding elder who conceived the idea, "that it was in the nature of an act of Providence that we were able to convert these places of disrepute into a house of worship."

Loving Is Said to Be Cure for Stuttering

New York.—Do you stutter? A little loving will cure it. If you are not of an amatory disposition dancing is a slower, but equally sure remedy.

At least, so says Dr James S Greene psychoanalyst and founder of the Ephphtha club. Ephphtha is a Bible word, meaning "thou shalt speak."

The 2000 members meet once a week. They go through exercises. Then Doctor Greene starts them talking of love. They dance. Ergo, their speech becomes normal.

The only disadvantage, if it should be called such, is that most of the patients cured of stuttering fall in love.

Doctor Greene's motto is:

"They don't stutter when they say: 'I love you.'"

"Farce" and "Comedy"

A farce differs from a comedy in the emphasis placed on the plot. In a farce the characters are what the plot requires them to be, while in a comedy the plot is subordinated to the characters. The "Farce de Pathelin" is considered the most famous, its authorship being attributed to different persons. Generally, Pierre Blanchet, who lived in the Fifteenth century, is credited with it, but some think it was written by the poet Villon.

Good Breed of Dog

The schipperke dog got his name from being so frequently seen on canal barges of Belgium, where he makes a good "watch" and is used oftentimes as an exterminator of rats. Doubtless this breed is in some ways related to the "wolf spitz" of central Europe. He is covered with glossy, straight, black hair, and the whole of his neck and breast is covered with an erect frill of longer hair.

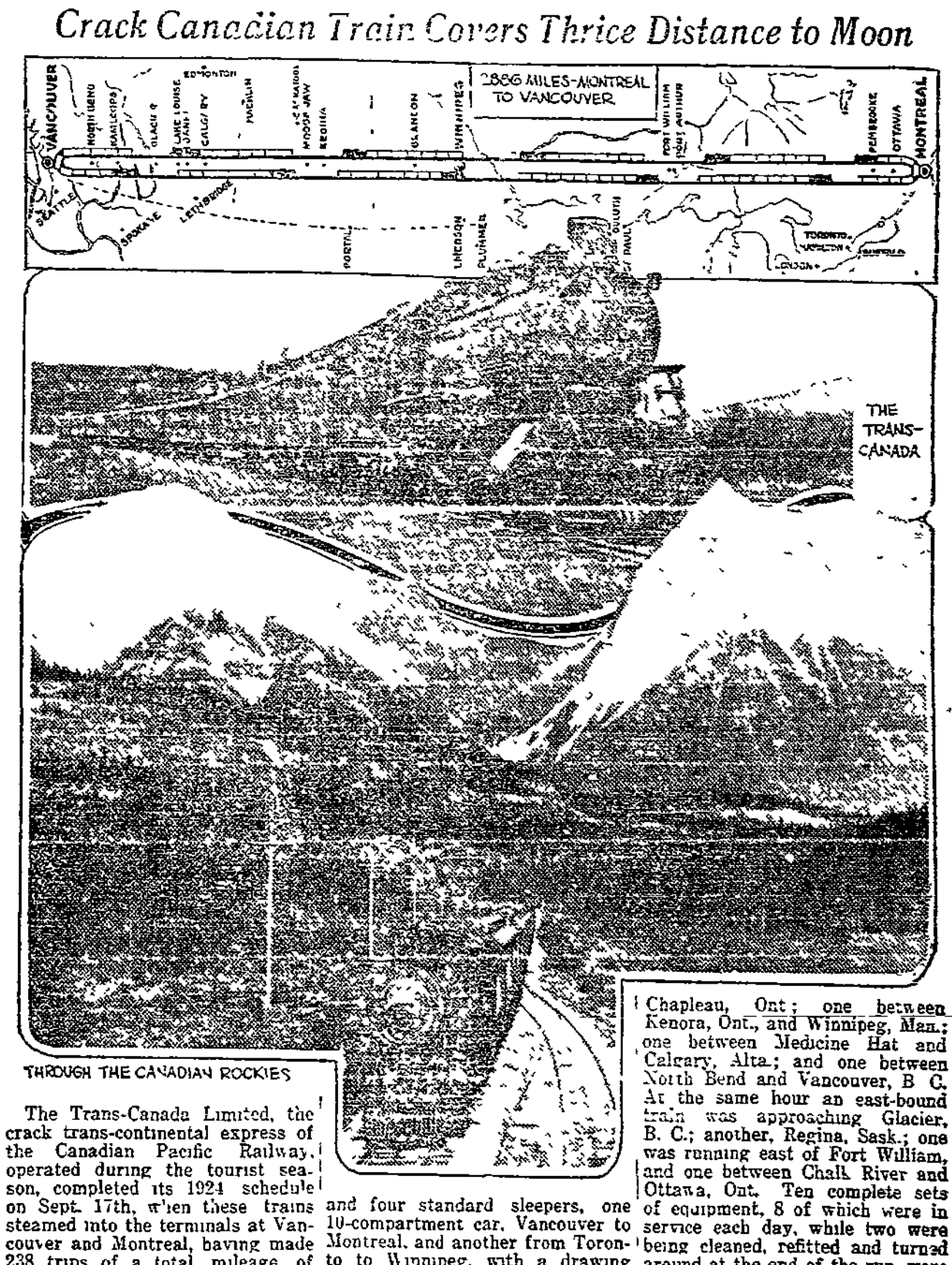
Crack Canadian Train Covers Thrice Distance to Moon



The Trans-Canada Limited, the crack trans-continental express of the Canadian Pacific Railway, operated during the tourist season, completed its 1924 schedule on Sept. 17th, when these trains steamed into the terminals at Vancouver and Montreal, having made 238 trips of a total mileage of 748,748 miles, which is three times the distance from the earth to the moon. The run from Montreal to Vancouver was 2,886 miles, covered in 90 hours, and 2,707 miles from Toronto to Vancouver in 86 hours.

C. B. Foster, Passenger Traffic Manager, summing up the season's performance, gave out some remarkably interesting figures which afford a partial insight into the magnitude of the task of maintaining such a service. The equipment of each of the ten trains consists of one baggage car, one dining car and four standard sleepers, one 10-compartment car, Vancouver to Montreal, and another from Toronto to Winnipeg, with a drawing room-3-compartment car from Montreal to Vancouver. There is also a local sleeper attached to west-bound trains from Ft William to Winnipeg. The average number of passengers at night varies from 75 to 110 persons. During 119 days that the train was in service this season, there was a one-night use of approximately 100,000 berths.

Each day four Trans-Canada trains were in motion over the company's lines in each direction. At 8 A. M. each day, one was west-bound between Cartier and Chapleau, Ont; one between Kenora, Ont., and Winnipeg, Man.; one between Medicine Hat and Calgary, Alta.; and one between North Bend and Vancouver, B. C. At the same hour an east-bound train was approaching Glacier, B. C.; another, Regina, Sask.; one was running east of Fort William, and one between Chalk River and Ottawa, Ont. Ten complete sets of equipment, 8 of which were in service each day, while two were being cleaned, refitted and turned around at the end of the run, were required to maintain the service.

The year's service called for 22 changes of engine on each Trans-Canada run from Montreal to Vancouver and two engines for the Toronto-Sudbury connection made by each train. This service required 48 engine runs daily and including these, the trains made only 26 stops on their whole run. Steady movement at a uniform speed over long distances and not on high speed, is the reason the Trans-Canada maintained its schedule and achieved the smooth running for which it is noted.

ARE ARTISTS ALL.

The Mail extends its congratulations to the merchants of the borough, winners and all, in the Window Trimming contest, whose culmination last night was one of the most pleasing innovations ever witnessed in the borough. And speaking of innovations, Charleroi business men, and its people, that is, the progressive element, are ever "springing" something new.

It can be said, and said truthfully, that the public witnessing the windows' display, marveled at the artistry shown and the magnificent display, symbolic of what was contained on the interior of the establishment for the delectation and profit of the observer. This window display proposition was happily conceived, and its termination was no less successful. The public has gained by it a more proper appreciation of what the establishment contains, than by the ordinary window trimming method, which, while beneficial, has never approached what the merchant can do when an incentive is the impulse.

The public is now eagerly awaiting the proposition of the results in the essay contest, which entries close on Monday, December 15, and all entries must reach the secretary of the Charleroi Chamber of Commerce, James T. Heffran, by that date. The subject matter is, "Why We Should Shop in Charleroi," and there are three sets of prizes to be awarded

FOR BETTER MILK.

Tuesday night's session of council, at which the secretary of the Charleroi Board of Health was present, further demonstrated that the leaders of the borough—councilmen and members of the health body, are vitally interested in the very important matter of pure milk for the masses. It has been demonstrated, through tests on the part of the health officer, that the lacteal fluid which has been dispensed to the patrons by the milk dealers has not, in all cases, been of the best character

In this connection, however, it is refreshing and commendable to note that through the activities of the board of health for better milk, that the dealers, those who sell milk in the borough, are alive to the situation and are as anxious as are the board of health and the members of council for only the best for the milk patrons of the borough. It is to be hoped that the campaign and crusade begun will bring about the best possible results; and it may be said that if the "cow men" will see to it that their cows are in the best of health and that the lacteal fluid sold is secured under the best possible sanitary conditions, the safety of the public from partaking of one of the most healthful of foods—milk, is assured.

Peer of Great Britain Advertises for Work

London, England.—Two "personals" appearing in the London Times tell their own story. The first, which reflects the social and economic changes wrought by the war, follows

"Peer wants work; under forty, energetic, resourceful; horses, motor, literature, served in royal air forces.

The other shows the dehard spirit, the spirit that's out to maintain the old social standards at all hazards. Here it is:

"There is now a vacancy (first class) for lady inebriate in home at ——. Apply, etc."

The plain inference of this laconic message is that at this particular home there is no welcome for a woman inebriate who is not a lady.

Didn't Need Bloodhound; His Own Nose Knows

Olean, N. Y.—The local constabulary did not require the use of the police bloodhounds when he went to capture a burglar at the home of Mrs. C. H. Miller.

After surrounding the house in answer to Mrs. Miller's call the constabulary emptied the entire cylinder of his six shooter into the carcass of a skunk, whose head had been caught in a milk bottle.

The tapping of the glass bottle had led Mrs. Miller to believe that a man had broken in the...

Tuberculosis might strike your home today

THERE is no precaution too great for you to take to protect your home and family from tuberculosis. Your children are constantly exposed to tuberculosis germs. The one effective protection against tuberculosis is the organized, co-operative campaign to stamp out the disease. It can be stamped out. Only half as many people die from tuberculosis today as died ten years ago. The organized battle against tuberculosis, carried on by the Tuberculosis Associations, has helped to save the other half.

Tuberculosis Associations are financed by the annual sale of Christmas Seals. One tangible, sure way to protect yourself and your family against tuberculosis is to buy Christmas Seals.

Typographical errors are one of the chief banes of a newspaper man's existence. In the rush of daily newsmedly, or sometimes not at all, and occasionally the result in the printed product is astonishing. For instance, the story is told of an editor who recently wrote a "puff" for the belle of the ball, saying, "Her dainty feet were incased in shoes that might have been taken for fairy boots," but the blundering compositor made it read: "Her dirty feet were incased in shoes that might have been taken for ferryboats."

Lead Roofs Need Attention

The leaden roofs of some of England's old churches, a heritage from medieval times, occasionally have to be melted down, rolled over and then replaced. The lead itself is indestructible, but it has been found that at the end of every 200 years the metal should be recast to give the best results as a roofing material

How Expression Started

"The greater the crime the higher the gallows," was at one time a practical legal maxim in English common law. In 1638 Patrick McGregor, alias Gilderoy, a notorious robber, was hanged at Edinburgh on a gallows so high that his body "looked like a kite in the clouds." Tradition says the gallows were 30 feet high. The expression "higher than Gilderoy's kite" is an allusion to this famous hanging. It means very high.

End of All Things

The temperature at which water begins to boil is called the boiling point. The boiling point depends on pressure as well as temperature. Water can be made to boil by either raising the temperature or by reducing the pressure Theoretically, then, if all the atmosphere were removed from the earth the pressure would be zero and the water of the ocean would boil and turn into vapor.

French Reign of Terror

The Reign of Terror was that period of the French revolution beginning with the fall of the Girondists in June, 1793, and lasting until the overthrow of Robespierre July 27 1794. During this time the country was under the domination of a faction which carried on wholesale executions regardless of age, sex or position.

Is your wife wiser than you?

If you read only the stock and sporting pages, and your wife is like other women, she is wiser than you. She reads the shopping news.

She likes to hear you jingle money in your pockets. She likes to stretch money to the limit, so she won't have to ask for more. She likes to shop strategically. Know what she does?

Comfortably at home in a cushiony armchair, she scans advertising columns. She compares, judges and selects the goods she desires; maps her route; with least effort and minimum time, goes direct to the planned store and buys.

She obtains what she wants at the lowest price it is offered. She is certain of full satisfaction, for she knows advertised goods live up to their claims. She saves time and steps, and returns sufficiently alert to enjoy new advertisements—and to prepare you an appetizing dinner.

These advertisements are written for your benefit, too. Read them. Help her to help you save.

ATTORNEY TO HOLD CASE

Automobiles seized for violations of the liquor laws will hereafter be in the custody of the district attorney's office, which will list the cars as they come in and keep a check on them until disposed of by order of court. This action is taken at the suggestion of the court and brings to an end the popular game of "passing the buck" which has been indulged in with reference to these cars. A place for the storage and safe-keeping of seized automobiles will be provided by the county commissioners, as required by law, but cars will be under the custody of the district attorney's office until properly disposed of.

This definite assignment of responsibility by the court will end a condition regarding the use and abuse of seized cars which has proven to be little short of a scandal and will result, it is thought, in the county getting something like value for the cars sold under condemnation proceedings.

JAPAN IS OPPOSED TO LIMITATION AUXILIARY VESSELS

Kobe, Japan, Dec. 4—Japan has come out flatly in opposition to limitation of auxiliary vessels of war, no matter what conference may propose it.

"Japan resisted the proposal limiting auxiliary vessels at the Washington conference three years ago and is determined to oppose any similar proposal because her geographical and strategical condition will not allow it," officials of the Japanese navy office said today.

The Osaka Mainichi broadcast their statement throughout the islands and there is intense public interests in the announcement, as well as what may be the next step of the United States.

Steps in Discoveries

One year after Michael Faraday had discovered benzine came the discovery of aniline, which is today made in enormous quantities from benzine; in 1835 a German chemist named Runge discovered that aniline treated with chloride of lime produced a beautiful blue color, but it was not until 1856 that an English chemist, Sir William Henry Perkin, discovered aniline purple and so founded the immense color industry of today.

Pretty Legend of Diamond

Diamonds are the favored stones for betrothal rings, says tradition, because the man who discovered the art of cutting and polishing the diamond made a fortune and was thus enabled to wed the maiden of his choice. The man was Louis de Berquem, a native of Flanders, who was clerk to a jeweler of Bruges in 1470, and who, so the story goes, had revealed to him in a dream how the stones might be beautified by cutting.

A Tragic Comedy

The proud possessor of a palatial home was much importuned by a movie company to let them use it for a few takes. One day he assented, left for his office as usual, and in due time returned. He found a bath tub on the lawn, half the windows broken, and the front door in splinters. "I didn't know it was to be a comedy," remarked the owner as he surveyed the scene.

children, for it is generally recognized that the greatest opportunity for preventing tuberculosis lies in building up a sturdy generation.

"The heart of this preventive effort effort is the Christmas Seal. The Seal carries the lessons of wholesome food, fresh air and proper sleep. One of the fine things about the Christmas Seal is that while carrying happiness and cheer at the Christmas season, it provides funds for carrying on this preventive work all through the year. Another thing which commends the Seal to every person is that it costs each individual little. One can place a Christmas Seal on each of his or her letters and packages at the holidays at an expense not exceeding what might be spent to see a motion picture or the price of several cigars.

"I know of no effort that pays such large dividends as the prevention of tuberculosis."

JURY TRIES TO LEARN CAUSE OF COLLISION

Detroit, Dec. 4—A coroner's jury today started investigation to determine cause of the collision of a Detroit-Toledo interurban train and a motor truck here last night that resulted in the death of five persons and injury of 10 others.

The dead: Daniel Callahan, Toledo, motorman; Mrs. Garnett Kisseberth Toledo; two unidentified women and an unidentified girl.

The victims were burned almost beyond recognition from flames that flashed into kerosene drums the trucks were carrying. The body of Mrs. Kisseberth was identified by her husband by bits of jewelry and clothing.

Witnesses said the truck started across a street directly in front of the interurban. The truck cleared the car but a trailer loaded with kerosene drums was struck. Force of the colision hurled some of the drums into the car where they exploded and caught fire. The motorman was crushed by one of the drums and burned in the fire that folowed.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY MAY JOIN IN INJUNCTION FIGHT

A proposal that the Allegheny county commissioners join a Forward township taxpayer in an injunction suit to stop the Forward township commissioners from damaging the Elkhorn county road near Monongahela City was given County Solicitor W. Heber Dithrich Tuesday for his decision.

The question came up when a bill for $6,600 from a contractor was recommended for payment by County Public Works Director N. F. Brown.

L. F. Bechtel, chief engineer of the county road bureau, said the township officials maintain a road that parallels the Elkhorn county road; that the township road is on a hillside far above the county highway, and that the township had dug cross drains in its road so that flood-water pours down a steep hillside in torrents onto the county's concrete road and causes washouts and avalanches that even bury the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad tracks below the county road along the Monongahela river.

The bill for $6,600 was for the removal of a landslide on that road, due to a rainstorm last June 26, and for repairs to the county's concrete road.
